

Rheumatism

If your muscles are sore, bones ache, joints feel stiff, and it pains dart through your body, it is probably rheumatism. Purify your blood, get out all the rheumatism poison—no need of your suffering in this way.

We have the following letter from Mr. R. J. Kowald, of Manumau, So. Australia. Mr. Kowald also sends his photograph.

"I suffered greatly with rheumatism, which laid me up for a long time. I tried a great many medicines, but they were of little or no use. A friend who had taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla induced me to try it. I thought it would be just like all the other medicines. But there was a great and pleasant surprise in store for me, for after taking only five bottles the swelling began to go down, the pains began to leave me, and I felt better in every way. After taking only five bottles I was completely cured. While I was taking the Sarsaparilla I also took Ayer's Pills to keep my bowels in good condition."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "Ayer's." Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A.

CASE GOING TO THE JURY

Trial of H. C. Mossman. Partition Report. Divorce, etc.

Evidence for both sides was all in, and requested instructions of the court to the jury were arranged, in the trial of Harry C. Mossman for embezzling public funds about 5 p. m. yesterday. The case will be presented to the jury by counsel and court this morning.

After Attorney-General Andrews rested the Territory's case early in the afternoon, Messrs. Davis and Thompson again endeavored to show the court that there was no occasion for any defense. They contended that the embezzlement of the moneys stated in the indictment had not been proved. Judge Robinson denied the motion for a directed verdict of acquittal.

The last of two or three witnesses for the defendant was himself. He was asked:

"When did you tender $610 to Col. Fisher, Auditor of the Territory?"

"On the morning of Tuesday, the 24th of October, 1904," was the answer.

"That's all," Mr. Thompson said and the Attorney-General began to cross-examine the witness.

"Where did you get the money from?" was asked.

An objection to the question was sustained and when put in another form the question was ruled out. Mr. Andrews contended he had a right to test the accuracy of the witness's memory, but the court would admit no question outside the scope of the direct examination.

PARTITION REPORT.

Jacob F. Brown, Commissioner in the suit of Carlos A. Long, administrator of the Holt estate, vs. Anakalea Kauli, has filed a report. The property is located on Maunakea and Paunahi streets. It is found that there are no incumbrances on it besides delinquent taxes for 1903 and 1904. The taxes are assessed on the whole premises in the name of A. Kauli. Mr. Brown is of the opinion, after personal inspection, that the property can be equitably divided, without injury to the premises as a whole and in justice to the respective parties, according to a plan he submits, whereby the Holt estate gets a lot of 2125 square feet and Kauli one of 1106 square feet.

COURT NOTES.

Wahinekapu Mossman sues Herbert J. Mossman for divorce on the ground of nonsupport for more than one year. The parties were married Nov. 7, 1900, by Rev. A. Fernandez, and they have a son about five years of age. Defendant has already made answer or general denial to the allegation of cause.

Lyle A. Dickey, guardian of Eva Kapua Lanilehuaiomano Waipa, a minor, has filed his final account with a petition for discharge, the ward having died March 10. His receipts were $1354.97 and payments $1007.89. The ward was a legatee of the Kanoa estate.

An amended petition has been filed by plaintiff in the covenant suit of Yim Seareck vs. Victoria S. Buffandean, wherein $780 damages are claimed for breaches of contract.

Smith & Lewis have withdrawn as attorneys for plaintiffs in the Puna Sugar Co. and have been appointed by Judge De Bolt as attorneys for the receiver.

HALEIWA.

The Haleiwa Hotel, Honolulu's famous country resort, on the line of the Oahu Railway, contains every modern improvement and affords its guests an opportunity to enjoy all amusements—golf, tennis, billiards, fresh and salt water bathing, shooting, fishing, riding and driving. Tickets, including railway fare and one full day's room and board, are sold at the Honolulu station and Travel Company for $5.00. For departure of trains consult time table.

On Sundays, the Haleiwa Limited, a two-hour train, leaves at 8:22 a. m.; returning, arrives in Honolulu at 10:10 p. m.

TWO JAPANESE RUN FOUL OF THE LAW

U. S. Marshal Hendry, Internal Revenue collector Chamberlain and Interpreter Shiozawa went over to Waimanalo on Thursday evening to interview two Japanese who have been distributing liquor from Honolulu merchants in that locality. No arrests were made, but Yamamoto and Takana came into town yesterday morning on account of the interview. They were given time to procure Internal Revenue licenses for their traffic, but having failed to make good they were arrested by Marshal Hendry about 4 p. m. They will probably arrange the statutory conditions of regaining their liberty this morning.

Teachers' Association.

The Teachers' Association will hold its next meeting at the High School this evening, March 18. Professor Brigham will address the teachers on the subject of "The Story of Vesuvius." Miss Monsarrat will give "Methods of Teaching Geography in the Grades," which will also prove very interesting. All teachers and others interested should make it a point to be present at this meeting.

ASSESSOR WINS TWICE

Wm. McCandless Loses Injunction Suit. Kauai Case.

In a unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court written by Justice Hartwell, the decree of the First Circuit Court is sustained which denied an injunction to William McCandless against Lee Chew, to restrain the defendant from removing buildings from premises at the termination of a lease. It is explained that the decision is "not on the ground that the defendant's covenant did not refer to the buildings, but on the ground that equity has no jurisdiction under the circumstances of the case."

The holding of the syllabus is this: "The buildings were within the intent of the covenant, but their removal causing no appreciable injury to the freehold and the defendant not being shown to be unable to respond in damages an injunction is properly refused. The damage from loss of the buildings is computable and is not waste which equity enjoins."

J. A. Magoon and J. Lightfoot for plaintiff; R. W. Breckons and Henry Hogan for defendant.

ASSESSOR TWICE SUSTAINED.

Tax Assessor Holt is sustained in his appeal from the Tax Appeal Court in the matter of the assessment of T. A. Hayes, by the Supreme Court in the following decision:

"The assessor added to the taxpayer's return of his income the sum of $1500, being the sum allowed him by his employer, the Pacific Hardware & Steel Co., of San Francisco, for his expenses during the year, at the rate of $125 a month. The taxpayer claimed that this was no portion of his income and that the assessor had no authority to add any item to his return."

"The statute does not require the assessor to take the taxpayer's return of his income as true. The item in controversy was properly added by the assessor, forming an actual part of the taxpayer's income. The decision of the Tax Appeal Court is reversed. The assessment made by the assessor stands."

Castle & Withington for taxpayer; A. G. M. Robertson for assessor.

Tax Assessor Holt is also sustained in his appeal with regard to the assessment of C. H. Smith. "The taxpayer claimed a deduction of $448.80 from his income for necessary expenses incurred in carrying on his business as a surveyor, being the cost of instruments, books, etc., used by him. The Tax Appeal Court sustained this claim and the assessor appealed from its decision. The decision of the Tax Appeal Court is reversed. The deduction claimed cannot be allowed." A. G. M. Robertson for assessor; no appearance for taxpayer.

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.

The Supreme Court affirms the judgment of the Fifth Circuit Court, Kauai, in the case of W. Kapepe vs. Kupaia and Koolan. Defendants brought a writ of error to have the judgment declared void on the ground that there was no decision in writing as by law required in a jury waived case. The appellate court finds that the statute was complied with, as the judgment set forth various findings not usually appearing in formal judgments and it was signed by the judge as well as by the clerk, J. D. Willard and M. F. Prosser for plaintiff; S. K. Kaeo for defendants.
